Democracy Must Fight On Live Issues, Says Senator McCreary.

In reply to a question as to what he thought of Mr. Bryan's declaration that the next national democratic platform must reaffirm the Kansas City and Chicago platforms, Senator McCreary said:

"If we are to have any hope of success in the coming presidential election, the democratic party must take up the questions that confront us to-day, and, in addition, we must have both conservatism and harmony. I feel quite sure that the democrats of my State, who redeemed themselves in the last national election, would much prefer this year to go into the fight on live issues. With a strong, earnest and conservative candidate, who will harmonize the party, and a platform covering the questions uppermost in the public mind to-day, the democracy can redeem itself in the nation."

Of all the men mentioned to lead the party in the coming campaign, it seems to me that Senator Gorman, of Maryland, and Judge Parker, of New York, more than any others, come up to the required standard. As for issues, I favor tariff reduction, economy in the administration of the government and honesty among our public servants. Our tariff to-day is higher than any other on earth, and the people will demand that it be reduced.

Since I entered Congress, 16 years ago, the expenditures for carrying on this government have nearly trebled. This is not as it should be. The expense can be reduced and the public service will not suffer. The complete elimination of corruption among government officials by investigation and the punishment of the guilty should be the democratic promise."

Origin Of The Greenback.

The man to whom Abraham Lincoln ascribed the origin of greenbacks died in Chicago in 1891. He was Col. Edmund Dick Taylor, who was born in Virginia, Oct. 18, 1802. He was a cousin of President Zachary Taylor. Early in life he removed to Springfield, Ill., where he opened a general store and trading post. He became acquainted with Abraham Lincoln. For several years young Lincoln made his home with Mr. Taylor and his family. When Mr. Lincoln became president, at a time when American credit was low and soldiers were demanding their pay, he sent for Mr. Taylor as the man who, to use Mr. Lincoln's own words, "will know what is best to do." When the question was put to him Mr. Taylor replied: "Issue treasury notes on the best bank paper bearing no interest. Declare it a legal tender and pay the soldiers and all other creditors with this money." Thus was accomplished the greatest blessing the Republic could have had at that time.

Congratulations.

Mr. John H. Cullom, editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulations to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an overdose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." For sale by W. N. Craig.

"Now, there are plenty of kinds of whiskey," said Representative Ollie James, of Kentucky, "but the people in our State contend that our Bourbon is the best in the world. We sell outsiders all that does not pass our test."

"What is the test?" asked Representative Beldier, of Ohio.

"Why," said Mr. James, "we inject one drop of it into the veins of a rabbit and if after that the rabbit will not fight a bull dog the whiskey is good."—Washington dispatch in New York World.

Wonderful Nerve.

Is displayed by many a man enduring pains of accidental Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Sore feet or stiff joints. But there's no need for it. Bucklen's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best Salve on earth for Piles, too. 25c at Penny's.

The population of the five departments of Normandy is 150,000 less than it was 30 years ago, and the decrease is attributed to the excessive use of alcohol.

Put a good name in one scale and great riches in the other and the average man will hesitate a long time before choosing.

LANCASTER.

On court day R. L. Elkin sold an aged mule for $175. A. R. Denny bought one pair of same for $325. W. B. Burton shipped two car loads to Atlanta Tuesday. Traders say mules are higher now than they have been at any time since the civil war.

Richard Ward and family will take up their residence in Cincinnati. It is with sincere regret that the people of Lancaster give up such people. Mr. Ward has been connected with every leading enterprise since his coming to reside in this place more than 12 years ago. His wife is an intelligent, christian woman and has been a leading light in social as well as religious circles. They have an interesting family of four boys and it is for the sake of them that Mr. Ward leaves this place hoping to find better educational and business advantages.

At a meeting of the democratic county committee held on Monday Secretary M. D. Hughes offered a resolution, which was adopted, calling for another meeting on Feb. 27th and requesting all candidates for county offices to be present and give their views in reference to time of making nominations. Several candidates were present and were about equally divided on the question of a late or early nomination. A mass meeting of the democratic county committee will likely be held on Feb. 22nd with a view of taking the opinion of the convention as to time of nomination.

Mrs. J. V. Pilcher, of Louisville, is the guest of Mrs. T. W. Reid. Rev. C. M. Reid, of Middlesboro, will visit his mother next week. Sherlie Elkin has returned from Lebanon. He will leave soon for Florida. Miss Mary Harvey Woodridge, who is visiting in Lexington, will return Saturday but will leave again on Feb. 3, to visit her cousin, Mrs. Pilcher, in Louisville. She will then go to St. Louis to visit her schoolmate, Miss Ledbetter, then will return with her mother, Mrs. S. C. Woodridge, to their home in Denver, Col. Miss Nellie Peyton has returned from a several days visit to her mother in Lexington. Lieut. Wm. Collier, of Louisville, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Joe Robinson. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wherritt are spending the winter in Florida. Col. Wilbur Smith, of Lexington, attended the funeral of Col. Dan R. Collier. Mrs. Geo. Farris and daughter, Miss Louise, are visiting Senator Geo. T. Farris at Frankfort. Eld. F. M. Tindler has returned from Somerset where he has been holding a very successful protracted meeting. The Christian Endeavor will entertain its members Saturday evening at the W. C. T. U. room. M. D. Hughes has gone on a business trip to Frankfort and Louisville. Harry Robinson, of Danville, visited his parents Sunday.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

I have for sale eight No. 1, good 700 pound two-year-old steers. J. S. Purcell, Mt. Vernon, Ky.

Admiral Dewey, by Bligee, dam Nancy Hanks, sold for $5,900 at the Pasig-Tipton New York horse sale.

Millionaire Haggis, of Fayette county, pays out over $20,000 per month to his hands on his Elmendorf Stud Farm. The board of supervisors of Marion county made a raise of over $500,000. The three banks in Lebanon were raised $200,000.

Pair of good work mules, an A 1 4-year-old horse and a 3-year-old mare, for sale at a bargain if sold at once. J. M. Reynolds, Waynesburg, Ky.

FOR SALE—300 bushels seed oats from Northern seed; clean and superior quality. 100 bushels pure home grown blue grass seed. A. W. Carpenter.

Came to my place Jan. 19, a gray horse about seven years old, fistula in both shoulders. Owner can get him by paying for keep and notice. J. W. Williams, Stanford.

Coffey Bros. bought a mule from G. W. Robertson for $100, three from E. Knight for $335. They sold one to S. G. Banks for $115 and one to W. R. Dehoney for $120.—Adair News.

CLIMATIC CURES.—The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles 25c; regular size 75c. At all druggists.

Joseph Goode, aged 84, is dead in Boyle.

NEWS NOTES.

"The Cliffs," a famous resort near Chattanooga, was destroyed by fire.

All grades of refined sugar have been reduced five cents a hundred pounds. In an accident in the Stratton Independence mine, in Colorado, 14 men were instantly killed.

Former Speaker of the Indiana House of Representatives Justus C. Adams died suddenly at Indianapolis.

Three men were killed and several others injured in a collision between two Burlington trains near St. Louis.

It is now believed that the murder of Miss Sarah Schaefer in Bedford, Ind., was the result of a case of mistaken identity, but no clue to the murderer has been found.

A handsome oil painting of former Gov. Bradley has been received at the State Executive Department and will be hung either in that department or the rooms of the Kentucky Historical Society.

While Mrs. Edward Smith, of La Crosse, Wis., was chopping wood, her daughter, five years old, placed a baby brother in a hot oven, closed the door and baked the baby to death before the mother returned.

Eight of an alleged gang of counterfeiters have been arrested by secret service officers in Calloway county and lodged in the Paducah jail. They are charged with passing numerous $20 counterfeit bills of Mayfield bank notes.

Representatives of several steel companies held a conference in New York for the purpose, it is said, of reviving the southern iron pool. It is understood that a merger of several of the concerns represented was also discussed.

C. B. Isaacs, of Portland, Ore., addressed the Kentucky Senate Wednesday on a proposition to appropriate $10,000 for transporting the Kentucky exhibit at the St. Louis Fair, at the close of that event, to an exposition to be held at Portland.

The coroner's jury in the Iroquois Theatre fire case in Chicago returned a verdict holding Mayor Harrison, Manager Davis, Building Commissioner Williams, Building Inspector Laughlin, Fire Marshal Mushan, Fireman Saliers and two employees of the theatre to the grand jury.

KINGSVILLE.

Our town is about to be incorporated, at least there's a movement being made in that direction.

It is a new baby girl and not a "boy" as we stated in our last, that Mr. and Mrs. Morris Walls are so rejoiced over.

Mr. W. L. McCarty has taken another business trip in Tennessee. Mr. McCarty thinks of starting a canning factory in that State.

Eld. W. M. Blakemore, a student of the Lexington Bible College, will preach at the Christian church Sunday. The church is at present without a pastor.

The remarks of the Gosben correspondent anent Rev. Livingston awaken a responsive chord in the hearts of our people. He has held a number of revivals here and together with the late Rev. J. L. Allen, of Louisville, founded the Kingsville Christian church, of which he was once pastor and greatly beloved as was Rev. Allen.

C. G. Baker sold his house and lot on Main Street to Dan Hester for $600. The latter will occupy the above property and Sebastian Chevrolet and family will occupy Mr. Hester's property. Mr. Baker and family contemplate locating in Harriman, Tenn. They will be very much missed here, both socially and commercially. Mrs. W. L. McCarty will be Mrs. Baker's successor in the millinery business. Mrs. Baker has been very successful and we wish Mrs. McCarty the same success.

Tennessee, the volunteer state, volunteered some of the most astonishing facts given to the convention, and we have only room for a word or two. She said, "Old Glory on the school house belfry became a veritable black flag to the liquor traffic, in a little world eight miles in diameter." Injunctively they knew each other for enemies to the death. This is all owing to their "four mile law," which forbids the sale of liquor within four miles of any school house, and the stars and stripes can be seen floating to the breeze from every school house. Towns of a few hundred to 5,000 population can surrender their charter and incorporate without liquor, so to day liquor in Tennessee can be sold in only a few of the larger towns and cities, and not half a dozen places in the state that could, by law, drive out the saloon, have failed to do so.—The Issue.

Domestic Troubles.

It is exceptional to find a family where there are no domestic ruptures occasionally, but these can be lessened by having Dr. King's New Life Pills around. Much trouble they save by their great work in Stomach and Liver troubles. They not only relieve you, but cure. 25c at Penny's drug store.

MR. S. B. LEVY.

Who made all arrangements to leave Stanford, but at the last moment changed his mind and decided to remain in the best town on the map. He is opening up a stock of goods in the Cawley Building, in Opera House block.

DOINGS AT FRANKFORT.

FRANKFORT, KY., JAN. 23.—The Legislature is getting along rapidly in the disposition of the more important measures which have arisen for consideration. The school book bill has passed; the bill appropriating $75,000 to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition is also ready for the Governor's signature. The capitol appropriation bill has passed the House and has been made a special order in the Senate. The Heflin bill providing an election on the amendment to the constitution, requiring the educational qualification of voters and eliminating the suffrage of the ignorant Negroes, is sure to pass both Houses and the people will have an opportunity to demonstrate their desires on the question of ignorant Negro suffrage.

S. D. Rigdon, Carl Day and I have been appointed as a committee to go to Washington City and extend a personal invitation to Senator Gorman to address the Legislature. The democratic members are warm for Gorman for president on the strength of his reputation and are, therefore, anxious to see and hear him. The republicans are pretty solidly for Roosevelt in the House as well as in the Senate and visiting republicans from all portions of the State favor the president for re-nomination. The regulars claim that the Hanna boom is being inaugurated by disappointed office seekers. Also probably some of the Negroes are sore because they have not received an invitation to dine with him, but if they will happen around the White House in campaign times they will doubtless be accorded the honor.

The people of Frankfort, like the inhabitants of good old Stanford, are hospitable in the true sense of the word and are generous to a fault. The splendid treatment accorded the members doubtless had a great deal to do with the kindly feeling established favoring Frankfort as the permanent location of the capitol.

The democrats are in absolute control of both Houses and are standing together like brothers of the same blood and some good democratic laws may be looked for before the session is ended.

The bill extending the school term from five to six months passed the House 70 to 0.

I introduced a bill to-day for the relief of the public school teachers of the State. It provides that their salary shall be paid them while attending institutes and is a meritorious measure I believe in every sense of the word and I trust will meet the approbation of the "school marm's" of old Lincoln.

Hon. R. C. Warren, of Stanford, and Assessor M. G. Reynolds, of Waynesburg, were visitors at the State Capitol and attended the session of the House.

Col. E. H. Taylor, Jr., who represents the Mercer-Franklin-Anderson district in the Senate, is one of the most royal entertainers to be found anywhere in Kentucky. He has spent thousands upon thousands of dollars in entertaining the members of the General Assembly for the past several and having seen realized his ambition in the passage of a capitol appropriation he is now the happiest man in all Frankfort and rightly does he deserve to be. In fact, he has spent the best years of his life toward that end. He is a Prince among Princes, a Chesterfield in all the world implies and a gentleman of the highest type. He has a beautiful home near the city and hardly an evening passes but what you see the members in bunches going to the Taylor home.

J. M. A. George Jenkins, aged 57, is dead in the Cornishville section of Mercer.
